

U ACADEMY

by Total Woman U

Total Woman U is a Christian, non-profit organization and has been creating and hosting events for women for the last several years.

We are super excited to announce U ACADEMY, our program designed for younger girls. We hope to positively influence younger girls as they are forming their identity and discovering their purpose.

We want them to know that they are each a unique creation with a God-given identity and purpose.

Our first TEEN event will be held in the Slidell area on Saturday, AUGUST 10, 2013.
